WHY Must Men Suffer?

"Many are the afflictions of the righteous," says Scripture. WHY? "I am the Eternal . . . I create evil," says Isa. 45:5,7. HOW can this be? Who was responsible for Adam's sin? Did Satan thwart God's purpose? Was God unable to prevent it? The real meaning of the story of JOB brings the true answer.

by Herbert W. Armstrong

WHY does God permit war? WHY does God allow human suffering and misery? "If God is GOOD—if God is LOVE—if He is MERCIFUL, He would not wish for people to suffer," is the reasoning of many humans. "And if He is ALMIGHTY," they conclude, "He could, and would prevent it."

What's wrong with this reasoning?

Is GOD Author of EVIL?

Years ago a post-office clerk came to me with a question.

"I have asked every preacher in town to explain this Scripture," he said, "and not one of them can. Let's see if you can."

Then he quoted from the 45th chapter of Isaiah.

"I am the ETERNAL, . . . there is no God beside me. . . . I form light and create darkness: I make peace and create evil: I the ETERNAL do all these things."

"There!" he exclaimed. "God says he creates evil. How do you explain that?"

I gave him the true explanation, which I now give you in this article. It is also the explanation of what is called "the original fall."

The common idea is that God created the first man perfect, complete, immortal. But when God wasn't looking, Satan entered, succeeded in overthrowing the man, wrecking God's perfect creation, thwarting God's purpose, upsetting God's plan. Consequently, God was forced to figure out some new plan for repairing the damage. Redemption, people believe, is that plan—God's effort to restore man back to a condition as good as Adam before the fall.

What Men Don't Understand

Either this common idea is true, or the only alternate possibility,—that God knew in advance that Satan would tempt, and Adam would sin—that it was all a part of God's original PURPOSE and PLAN—that God expressly permitted it, and that God therefore is RESPONSIBLE FOR IT!

And the preachers, the churches, and the professing Christian people of this world simply cannot believe this! Yet, to reject it makes Satan more cunning, more powerful than God. The common idea has Satan outsmarting God.

What men do not understand is GOD'S PURPOSE, and GOD'S PLAN for accomplishing His great purpose.

Yes, God is responsible! And being responsible, God will see to it—He and He alone is responsible for accomplishing His great purpose. All that has happened is a necessary part of that great design. Satan can do nothing God does not allow. "My purpose shall stand," says God.

There is NO CONTEST being waged between God and the devil. God reigns SUPREME, and every creature and every being stands subject to God's will!

Becoming the Sons of God

What the world does not grasp is that God is reproducing Himself—creating, in mortal humans, His very own divine CHARACTER—permitting humans to learn by experience, for character cannot be automatically or instantaneously created, imparted or imputed—it must be developed, and this only thru EXPERIENCE, and experience requires time.

We humans must have our part in the development of righteous and holy character. We must first come to realize the true values, and to thoroughly repent of the false way. We must come to seek, with our whole hearts and minds, God's true way of righteous character.

We must set our wills in tune with God's will.

Then we must come to realize our utter helplessness, and learn to rely on God, in living FAITH, for the power, the strength, the understanding, the righteousness we ourselves are incapable of attaining.

We receive eternal life, and all righteousness, from God. But we have our part to do! We must come to desire it above all else—to seek it with all our might — to yield ourselves utterly to God's will, and to trust implicitly and unswervingly in HIM. In no other manner could we become the supreme characters which it is God's PURPOSE to make of us.

To this end, we must now be begotten as God's own children, inheriting His divine nature. Thru His power, thru feeding on His Spirit, we GROW in grace and knowledge and spiritual character, until, at the resurrection, we shall be BORN of God as His very SONS—elevated to HIS plane and level!

That's God's supreme purpose. It can be achieved only thru EXPERIENCE, and in process of TIME. And men LEARN by suffering.

Jesus suffered. "For it became Him, . . . in bringing many soms unto GLORY, to make the captain of our salvation [Christ] perfect through sufferings" (Heb. 2:10). Again, "Though He were a Son, yet learned He obedience by the things which He suffered" (Heb. 5:8).

Now see how Job's experience explains all this.

LET'S UNDERSTAND IT!

Job's Experience Explains It!

Thousands of years ago, there was a man named Job. You've heard of the man. He lived, as you live today, for a PURPOSE. And the solution of this whole question is made clear by the life-experiences of Job. Many know the story, but few understand its MEANING!

This Job was a wealthy man—the wealthiest in all the East. Solomon may have possessed greater wealth. But, as Solomon was the wisest man who ever lived, so Job was the most righteous!

So let's glimpse, briefly, this thrilling story and its revealing lesson.

"There was," begins the scriptural record, "a man once in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God and shunned evil. He had seven sons and three daughters; also in livestock he possessed seven thousand sheep and goats, three thousand camels, five hundred pair of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, besides a very large household; so that this man was the greatest man in all the East" (Job 1:1-3, Moffatt translation).

"Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the ETERNAL, and Satan came also among them.

"And the ETERNAL said unto Satan, 'Whence comest thou?' Then Satan answered the ETERNAL and said, 'From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.'

"And the ETERNAL said unto Satan, 'Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that fears God and shuns evil?'" (Verses 6-8, A.V.)

"Satan answered, 'But is it for nothing that Job reverences God? Have you not hedged him safely in, his house and all he has? You have prospered him in his business, and his flocks are teeming on the land. Only put out your hand, touch whatever he possesses, and see if he will not curse you to your face!'" (Verses 9-11.)

This World's Philosophy

Notice, please, Satan couldn't point out one imperfection in the man's righteousness. Even God said it was perfect. Yes, undoubtedly Job was the most righteous man who ever lived.

But Satan tried to get around it. He argued that it paid Job to be righteous. So, Satan argued, just take away from him what he has, and the man will lose his temper and start cursing God!

Well, God deliberately PERMITTED Satan to take away Job's possessions, and put Job to this test.

"Then said the ETERNAL to Satan, 'There! I leave all he has within your power: but lay no hand upon the man himself'" (Verse 12).

Notice, will you, Satan did this with God's permission! Satan was the active agent. But he did it with God's express permission—he could go just as far, in inflicting evil, as God permitted, and no further! God set a limit on how far Satan could go! There is no contest here between God and Satan—no equality. GOD IS MASTER OF THE SITUATION! He gives the orders, grants permission, sets the limitations!

"So, away went Satan from the presence of the ETERNAL."

What Happened to Job

Then one day a servant came running to Job with the startling news that Arabs in a foray had carried off all his oxen and asses. Even while he was still talking, in dashed another servant shouting that lightning had just struck and burned up all the sheep, goats, and shepherds. While he was yet speaking another rushed in breathlessly announcing three parties of Chaldeans in a raid upon the camels had carried them off, slaying all the servants except the one who escaped to bring the news.

And even he was yet speaking when in burst another.

"Your sons and daughters," he exclaimed, "were eating and drinking wine in the house of their eldest brother, when a whirlwind swept across the desert and struck the four corners of the house, till it fell upon the young folk; they are DEAD! And I alone escaped to tell you!" (Verses 12-19).

Well, now Job was stripped of all his great wealth—wiped out! Worse, all his children were killed!

Did Job blame this ill-fortune upon God? Did he lose his temper and curse God? Did he sin, as Satan expected?

"Then Job rose, tore his tunic, shaved his head, and dropped upon the ground in humble worship, crying, 'Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked I must return: the Eternal gave, the Eternal has taken—blessed be the Eternal!' In all this Job did not sin, nor did he give offense to God" (Verses 20-22).

Notice, Job attributed ALL to God. The wealth he had had, God gave. The good—the prosperity—all came from God. But also "The ETERNAL has taken!" The Eternal, too, was responsible for the disaster! NOTHING happens contrary to God's purpose!

Satan Tries Again

"One day the sons of God again came to present themselves before the Eternal, and among them came Satan.

"'Where have you been?' said the Eternal to the Adversary; and the Adversary answered, 'Roaming here and there, roving about the earth.'

"Then the Eternal said to Satan, 'Have you noticed that there is no one like my servant Job on the earth, a blameless and an upright man, who reverences God and shuns evil? He still holds to his loyalty: it was idle of you to entice me to undo him.' But the Adversary answered,

"'He has saved his own skin! A man will let all he has go, to preserve his life. Only put out your hand, touch his flesh and bones, and see if he will not curse you to your face!'" (Job 2:1-6).

Notice, there is no contest here between two equals. God sits in authority supreme. Satan cannot do one thing without permission from God!

And here, in this heavenly court, God permits Satan to advance his arguments—even to put them to the test of experience on the most righteous human on earth! It is a thrilling drama here being enacted—a drama with great purpose—tremendous meaning!

"So the Eternal said to Satan, 'He is in your power; only spare his life!'"

Notice again, ALL AUTHORITY comes from God. It is God who put poor Job in Satan's power. Satan was permitted to devise his most cunning and cruel affliction—with but one restriction: "Spare his life," commanded God. Satan could go no further than God specifically authorized! And God did permit this evil! WHY, we shall soon see!

So "Away went the Adversary from (Please continue on page 21) strumentality used by Him in carrying out the work of God here on earth.

The men Christ is using in this work are consecrated and dedicated. They FEAR the Living God more than they do the societies and pressure groups of men.

Although they are independently relying on and serving God—and are not “yes men”—yet they work together in love and unity as a team. For they are guided by and empowered by the same Holy Spirit of God. They believe that the Bible MEANS what it says. So they obey it—and teach others to do the same.

Therefore, God is using this work as His instrument to fulfill Jesus Christ's prophecy: “And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a WITNESS unto all nations; and then shall the end come” (Matt. 24:14).

WHY Must Men Suffer?

the Eternal's presence, and he smote Job with painful ulcers from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head, till Job took a potsherd to scrape himself.

“As he sat among the ashes, his wife said to him, ‘Still holding to your loyalty? Curse God, though you die for it!’”

Was God Just and Fair?

But Job retorted to his wife,

“You are talking like an impious fool. Are we to take good from God's hand, and not evil too?”

Notice, all the GOOD had come from God. Also all the evil! Beside Him there is no God—no power equal or superior to His. God is responsible for EVERYTHING—both good and evil, because God's power is SUPREME—absolute! Is this a sin to charge the EVIL as well as the good, to God?

“In all this,” answers God's Word, “Job sinned not with his lips.” Charging this evil to God, then, was no sin—no error. It was the TRUTH!

“Now, when Job's three friends heard of all the trouble that had befallen him, they came, each from his own home, Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Maan; they arranged to go and condole with him, to comfort him. But when they caught sight of him at a distance and could not recognize him, they wept aloud; every man of them tore his tunic and flung dust on his head. For seven days and seven nights they sat beside him on the ground; none said a word to him, for they saw how terrible was his anguish” (Job 2:9-13).

Here is human suffering to compare with the horrors of World War II. Here is anguish almost beyond description! Satan inflicted it. But God permitted it, and therefore is RESPONSIBLE!

Job's Friends Have an Argument

Now in the long conversation that followed between Job and his three friends—a conversation occupying the next 34 chapters in the Bible—Job's friends blamed it all on JOB. Their idea was a good deal like many people believe today. Since God is GOOD, it was impossible to attribute this evil to GOD.

But Job continually denied his friends' allegations. Continually HIS OWN RIGHTEOUSNESS he upheld and maintained. He attributed it all, rightly, to God—yet, without imputing any blame or fault to God. JOB UNDERSTOOD GOD'S GREAT PURPOSE being worked out here below!

And it is important that we understand! For here Job, as one single individual, is used as an illustration for our learning TODAY, typical of all the mass suffering we see about us in this world today!

God Enters the Argument

Finally, after all these long conversations run themselves out, God Himself takes a hand in the conversation.

Now we begin to see WHY this affliction had come to Job.

“Then the Eternal answered Job out of a storm, saying:

“‘Who darkens MY DESIGN with a cloud of thoughtless words? Confront me like a man; come, answer these My questions’” (Job 38:1-3).

Let me interrupt here with an interesting side-light explanation which throws light on the conversation to follow. Some authorities believe that Job was the architect and director of the building of the Great Pyramid—still today the largest building on earth, and prior to the construction of the Woolworth building the tallest. That Job was proud of his righteousness is plain. That he also might have been puffed up over constructing the world's greatest building clears up much that God says now to him.

Job was too well aware of his righteousness. God now proceeded to deflate his ego. Can it, then be possible God now compares His creation of the earth, and all that is, to the comparatively insignificant accomplishment of building the Great Pyramid? It's interesting to keep this possibility in mind.

“‘When I founded the earth,’” God opened up on Job, “‘where were you, then? Answer me that, if you have wit to know! Who measured out the earth?—do you know that? Who stretched the builder's line on it? What were its pedestals placed on? Who laid the corner-stone, when the morning-stars were singing, and all the angels chanted in their joy?’” (Verses 4-7).

It is significant that a pyramid is the only kind of building on earth where the corner-stone is the top stone—the last stone laid—at the COMPLETION of the building! And here God represents the symbolic “corner-stone” of the EARTH as being laid at its completion—when the angels shouted for joy!

And so God continued to deflate poor Job. Job may have been the most righteous man on earth—yet how insignificant he was, compared to GOD!

Man was created to need God! Man cannot live his full life, fulfill his mission, or be happy, unless he keeps himself in his right relationship with GOD! That is the very first lesson man needs to learn and keep ever in mind!

A first principle in character—in the PURPOSE of our existence—is to exalt and worship only GOD, TO HUMBLE the self, to realize man's utter helplessness, and his total DEPENDENCE upon GOD!

“‘Who helped shut in the sea,’” God asked, “‘. . . when I swathed it in mists and swaddled it in clouds of darkness, when I fixed its boundaries . . . saying Thus far, and no farther! Here your proud waves shall not pass!’”

"Have you ever roused the morning, given directions to the dawn? . . . What path leads to the home of Light, and where does Darkness dwell? Can you conduct them to their fields? . . . Have you grasped earth in all its breadth? How large is it? Tell me, if you know that!

"Can you bind up the Pleiades [cluster of stars] in a cluster, or loose the chains of Orion? Can you direct the signs of the Zodiac, or guide the constellations of the Bear? Can you control the skies? Can you prescribe their sway over the earth?"

God does all these things. How MIGHTY is God! And how little, how weak, how impotent and insignificant is man—yes, even the most righteous man, Job! How Job must have begun to shrivel up in his own estimation! Smaller and smaller Job shrank, as God continued. Job didn't seem so important, now!

"Who, then," God is not through yet—"is able to stand before ME? Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? Whatever is under the whole heaven IS MINE . . ." And so God continued to bring down Job's self-righteous importance—and to show the unmatched, awesome MAGNITUDE of God, thru four whole chapters, before He finished.

And by the time God finished, Job's estimation of himself was exactly nil. All through his conversation with his three friends, Job stoutly maintained his own righteousness—his self-importance! Even though Satan had taken away his wealth, his children—even tho reduced to a pitiful sight, covered with nauseating boils—Job's own righteousness he stoutly maintained!

Job was able to maintain his case against Satan—against his friends. But now he could not answer GOD! Job's trouble was not what he had done, but what he was—SELF-RIGHTEOUS! The self in Job had never died!

In just 5 verses of Job's conversation he used the personal pronoun 15 times; and in the 29th chapter alone, he used it 50 times!

Now, for the first time, he began to realize the TRUTH—he began to catch a vision of GOD!

Then Job answered the Eternal, and said, "I know that thou canst do everything, and that no thought can be withholden from thee. I thoughtlessly confused the issues; I spoke without intelligence, of wonders far beyond my ken. I had heard of thee by hearsay, but now mine eyes have seen thee; wherefore I ABHOR MYSELF, and REPENT in dust and ashes."

The Lesson Learned!

That was Job's SURRENDER to Almighty God—a surrender every human must make before he can be converted—before God's PURPOSE in him can be fulfilled! A man may be naturally GOOD—but even the self-righteousness of a Job, God says, is like a filthy rag to Him! The only righteousness that is really good is the righteousness of God, imparted to us BY FAITH!

Job at last had learned his lesson! Just human goodness is not enough. GOD is all in all. And the only goodness that is good is God's own goodness, imparted, through God's Holy Spirit, within us! All true righteousness comes from God.

All humans have this great lesson to learn. It's the one supreme lesson of life! To learn it, and conform to it, is the PURPOSE of human existence!

Job's calamity and great suffering proved a great blessing to him, in the end! Actually, great good, double prosperity, and eternal happiness, came of it! For, after he repented, and came to really know God, he was given another seven sons and three daughters, and twice the material possessions he had had before!

"So the Eternal blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning," it is written (Job 42:12). And verse 11 speaks of "all the evil that the Eternal had brought upon him."

Satan Never Altered GOD'S PURPOSE

So notice this! Satan has never upset God's program—never altered God's purpose! In Job 42:2, the alternate marginal translation of the original inspired Hebrew words is: "no purpose of thine can be restrained."

Almighty God is SUPREME in the universe! Supreme not only in Love, and in Power—but in WISDOM! There was divine WISDOM in God's permitting Satan to afflict Job. Out of all this experience of suffering, Job was humbled, his ego deflated, his self-pride removed. It hurt, to have these things torn out of his character—Job suffered—even as you and I suffer, today! But he was brought to repentance, surrender to God, dependence upon God, a filling of God's Spirit, without which he never could have known real happiness, never could have gained eternal LIFE!

All Job originally had was material wealth and possessions, and mere human righteousness! Now Job had double the material possessions — but infinitely greater, he now had the supreme security of the faith of God, and that true source of happiness, reliance upon the Supreme One, and the indwelling of all His attributes! God's Spirit in us is the only thing that will satisfy the heart-hunger—the only thing that can warm, fill, and energize with happiness and joy the human soul!

The True ANSWER to Our Questions!

Now we are ready to see, and to UNDERSTAND, the true answer to our questions!

The real answer was brought out by Job during his conversation, even as it is illustrated by the experience of his life.

"If a man die, shall he live again?" asked Job (Job 14:14).

And the answer is the answer to all our questions! Here it is:

"All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come. Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands!"

The part of what Job said that is most often carelessly overlooked is the part that answers the questions of this article! Notice it again!

"Thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands!"

STUDY THAT! Job knew he was merely the work of God's Hands! Merely a clay model, which God, the Master Potter, was to mould and fashion and reshape. Let Isaiah explain it: "WE are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away . . . But now, O ETERNAL, thou art OUR FATHER; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand" (Isa. 64:6-8).

Our own righteousness will not save us. We must REPENT, surrender unconditionally to GOD, come to Him thru Jesus Christ as personal Saviour, and then God PROMISES to beget us with His Holy Spirit—actually put HIS SPIRIT within us. His spirit is His very LIFE—His love, His understanding and wisdom, His power, His faith, His righteousness. We drink in, thru His Spirit, HIS NATURE AND HIS CHARACTER.

Thru a life-long of Christian living—of overcoming self, of growing spiritually, thru the very power of GOD imparted to us, we develop spiritually ready to be finally BORN OF GOD—by a resurrection, or instantaneous conversion from mortal to immortal—from human to divine—from weakness to power—from dishonor to GLORY!

And what about all these human sufferings which work character within us?

The Apostle Paul settled that: "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the GLORY which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the SONS OF GOD" (Rom. 8:18-19).

Inside South America

tionalism while living abroad. But there is one difference in this—the Americans very rarely learn to speak Spanish and speak it well. The Germans, on the other hand, come to the Latin American countries speaking the language fluently. They know all the niceties of the Spanish speaking people, their customs, their peculiarities. And in doing this they can influence the people to trade more and more with the German government and with German businessmen.

There is much oil activity going on here, and a steady influx of Americans coming in to exploit the natural riches of Peru. Peru permits this at the moment, but can at any moment nationalize the industry and throw the Americans out, or any other foreigner, as far as that goes. I saw no anti-American signs, nor any anti-American feeling during my stay here.

I investigated the possibility of going on the air in Spanish. But at the present time, the only thing that is open to us is the station "Miraflor," which is one of the better stations in this city, but it does not reach out into the country.

My Stay in Chile

I made reservations to leave on the morning of June 20 for Santiago, Chile. I left about 8:30 A.M. and arrived about 2:30 the same day in Santiago, the capital of Chile. We had to fly over about 2000 miles of the Pacific Ocean in order to arrive there. As we approached the capital, I could see the mighty Andes with the tallest peak of this rugged chain that stretches from the northern point of South America to the southern end of the continent. This peak is called Mt. Aconcagua. It has an elevation of some 22,895 feet. Aconcagua in the Araucanian tongue means "the rocky sentinel." It is continually snow-capped and can be seen clearly from the air as one approaches Santiago. It is to the north some 20 to 30 miles from the capital.

Santiago is a city of about 1,500,000 people. It looks like and is like Los Angeles in many ways. It even has smog! I landed at the airport at Los Cerillos, outside of Santiago, and checked into customs. The first thing that I noticed was the predominance of the German-appearing soldiers with their helmets and their uniforms that were typical of the Germans during the last world war. After clearing through the customs, I took a taxi downtown to the hotel, and gained some impressions of what Chile would be like by listening to the man in the taxi as we drove through the center of town.

The town was typical European with wooden houses on the outskirts and stone houses as you approach the center of town, but after you got into town, the streets were well planned, but very dirty. There was a heavy pall of smoke hanging over the city—so much that only every now and then could you get a glimpse of the Andes mountains in the background. Of course, I arrived in Santiago in the dead of winter—the trees, the parks and the flowers were just as bare as they could be. The most outstanding thing in this city, as I approached the center of town, was the fact that there were absolutely no new cars, at first sight. After a few days I did find a few, but these belonged to foreign diplomats and foreign businessmen who are doing business in the country.

But the average Chilean is a poor person. The standard of living is very, very low. The standard wage is so low, that he hardly exists on it.

Santiago Is Very Cosmopolitan

This is a very cosmopolitan city; you can see that by merely glancing at the people. Listening to the people talk on the street, you will hear German, Yiddish, English, French and Italian. All of the European races are represented here, but in the distribution of the population, Spanish is first, of course, then German, French, Yugoslav, and then some Czech, and some English. There are very few Negroes who live in Chile. Most of the population is Mestizo. I believe that the Information Please Almanac gives 60% of the population as being Mestizo.

I went into a restaurant here the first afternoon trying to become acquainted with Chile and Chilean money. I started to ask the waiter some pertinent questions about his country. I could see at the outset that he was very, very nationalistic in his attitude by the answers that he gave me. I asked him what was the value of the Chilean peso. He blushed and started talking about something

WHY THE PLAIN TRUTH HAS NO SUBSCRIPTION PRICE

So many ask: "How can you publish a magazine, without subscription price, and without advertising?"

The answer is simple. The GOSPEL must go to the whole world, and it must go FREE. It must not be sold like merchandise. "Freely ye have received," Jesus said to His disciples whom He was sending to proclaim the Gospel, "freely GIVE." Without money and without price, is God's way. We proclaim a FREE salvation. Therefore, we cannot put a PRICE upon The PLAIN TRUTH.

We have been called of God to conduct this work. It is not our work, but God's. We have set out to conduct God's work God's way. We rely, in FAITH, upon God's promises to supply every need.

God's way is the way of LOVE—and that is the way of giving, not getting. God expects every true child of His to GIVE of tithes and offerings that His work may go FREE—that His true ministers may GIVE the precious Gospel to others. We simply TRUST GOD to lay it on the minds and hearts of His people to give of their tithes and offerings that we may be enabled to GIVE the good things of God's Word to the hundreds of thousands who hear the Message over the air, and the scores of thousands who read The PLAIN TRUTH.

Many times our faith has been severely tried, but God has never failed us. We must not fail HIM!
