

There's a HIDDEN ENEMY in your Home!

Have we been overlooking the very first lesson in true Christian living?

by Herbert W. Armstrong

THERE'S an enemy in your home, probably. You haven't seen this enemy. He's right in your family—he's made you all suffer—he's broken up many families, caused untold suffering, and a world of unhappiness.

But you never saw him. He's kept hidden from your sight.

It's high time you opened your eyes and took a good look at him, so you can recognize him for the villain he is.

The psychologists call him "emotional immaturity."

But that's something many people know nothing about. It's something "educated" people talk and write about, but seldom understand.

What is emotional maturity?

It is not something to be learned about by college graduates. It is something that ought to be taught in the first grade—and taught to four-, six-, and eight-year-olds in the home. It is the technical art of putting into practice the Ten Commandments.

Few Understand It

It is the real secret to human happiness. But it is just not taught!

How can parents teach their children, when they themselves are emotionally immature? How can teachers instill emotional maturity in children when they have not grown up emotionally themselves?

Yet here is the real secret of ability to live the Ten Commandments. It's the real secret to Christian living and perfection. It's the real distinguishing mark of the truly educated person. That it is not realized, and instilled in children while they are growing up—that it is not a required basic course of training in all colleges—is a terrible indictment against education, religion, American society.

What It Is

One author defines emotional maturity as development from the state of taking to the state of giving. Spiritually, taking is the way of Satan. Giving is the way of God, and the principle of His Law. LOVE is giving.

A little baby knows only how to take.

He will take his bottle, his rattle, his toy. It is human nature to take. Humans know absolutely NOTHING at birth. Therefore a baby responds only to the nature within him, and reaches out to take whatever attracts or tempts him.

Humans must be taught to give. Giving is something that has to be LEARNED. But how many begin teaching their babies this principle—the very principle of God's Law, and of true love?

Let us define it further.

All human beings are actuated by their emotions. But do we ever stop to ask, and analyze, what are these emotions?

An emotion is a strong feeling—a disturbance—a departure from the normal calm state of rational thinking and acting—an impulse toward an action which has not been reasoned and approved by the mind. Among the emotions are such feelings or impulses as fear, anger, disgust, grief, joy, surprise, yearning.

And first cousin to emotion are our moods. An emotionally immature person is usually one who is moody and has never learned to control his moods.

What We Overlook

More and more I am impressed that one of the most important truths we humans overlook is that human beings are not equipped with instinct, like dumb animals, to guide us into the proper course. Animals do not have the mind-power, knowledge, ability to reason and mentally direct their actions. God endowed them, instead, with instinct which guides them along in the channel He intended.

God endowed man, in His own image, with MIND. Man must first learn, and acquire knowledge. He is endowed, also, with capacity to reason from that knowledge—to think, to plan, to arrive at conclusions, to make decisions.

God intended man's mind to direct his actions. But man must learn to do this, and he can never achieve God's PURPOSE in placing him on this earth until he does.

The development of right CHARACTER is the purpose of human life. And character is ability to come to right knowledge and wisdom and then to direct the mind and body into this right course.

But we poor humans act as tho we believed man to be merely the highest of the dumb brutes—as if man were equipped with instinct, and the purpose of life were merely to ENJOY such feelings, sensations, emotions and moods as impulse attracts us to, without thinking, or mental direction!

A Tragic Case

I once knew a tragic example. A man highly educated, whose life had been devoted to the field of education, assuming readily the responsibility of teaching others, when he, himself, had never learned this central truth of life.

His mind was stored with knowledge of science, history, mathematics, literature. He had knowledge of facts about the earth, the sun, the moon, the stars. He had acquired knowledge about many other things, but not about himself—his moods, his feelings, his drives, impulses and desires. He had never stopped to study and analyze them, let alone learn to control them.

As a child he had been pampered, petted, spoiled—permitted to have his way, never taught self-restraint, self-control, or how to understand his moods, feelings, and desires, and to control and guide them according to the sound reasoning of the mind, instead of impulsively following them without mental direction.

He was married, had a fine family, an honored position with rare opportunities. But letting feelings, moods, impulses dominate his mind, instead of making his mind rationally and wisely direct them, his marriage crashed, his home was broken up, and he fled in fear from his high position and brilliant future. He not only wrecked his own life, he forced great sorrow, unhappiness, and suffering on many others.

His emotions had so dominated his mind that he came to see circumstances thru the eyes of his feelings, and his understanding became warped and distorted.

Physically he grew to normal matu-city, and was reasonably proficient in athletics. He possessed a number of university degrees. He was mentally mature so far as this world's faulty education instructs. But emotionally, he was still somewhere between ages eight and twelve! And, as a sad accompaniment, his spiritual age was no older.

The great tragedy of our generation is that nearly all people mature physically, perhaps half to two-thirds mature mentally, but very few ever grow up emotionally or spiritually.

One is not a fully mature man or woman, as God intended, until emotional and spiritual maturity has been reached!

Should Start in Child Training

The time to start this emotional "growing up" is the same time mental training is begun. It should be started in the home, and surely by age three or four.

Parents, STUDY your own children. Remember that training of the emotions involves control and right direction of feelings, tempers, impulses. It means control over anger, jealousy, hatred, fear, grief, resentment, selfishness, vanity.

And since the RIGHT direction is the way of God's Law—and since that is the way of LOVE, and love is the principle of giving instead of taking, it means the teaching of your children to use their own minds to understand their moods, and guide them in the direction of GIVING—of love toward others, equal with love toward self.

Yelling, loud talking, bursts of temper, rudeness—all these are lack of emotional "growing up." Emotional immaturity is simply letting human nature run sway without any control from a right-thinking, reasoning mind. Teach your children to let their MINDS direct their natures properly and wisely.

I remember the first funeral I was called on to officiate. At funerals many people let their emotions of grief run uncontrolled. A great fear seized me. I was afraid I would not be able to keep calm and control my own feelings, and I knew I must do that, and with calm tenderness and sympathy, comfort the bereaved. I was much younger then, and in the emotional struggle that went on inside my mind over ability to carry this responsibility, I began to break down and go to pieces.

I announced to my family I just couldn't do it. We were at the time visiting in my father's home, and he came over to me, put his hands on my shoulders, and calmly shook me, saying in a voice of authority with which he had not spoken to me since I was a child:

"Here! Snap out of it! This is your responsibility! This family is broken up in sorrow, and they are relying on you.

You can't back out of it! Wake up! Come to yourself! Get a grip on yourself! You are going thru with this, and you're going to do it with credit, and calm dignity and sincerity!"

That, I remember, sobered and calmed me and brought me back to my right senses, and I replied quietly:

"Yes, Dad, of course I will."

Then I went to a private room, closed the door, and talked to my heavenly Father about it, and received from Him the emotional control I had lacked for this ordeal—and that first funeral was an ordeal. But when I literally placed myself in God's hands as His instrument, He used me, and the words He spoke thru my mouth resulted in the conversion of the bereaved parents.

I found it difficult, as I was later more and more frequently called upon to officiate at funerals, so to control my own emotions as to achieve right balance—that outer calmness, without going to the opposite extreme of hardening my senses so that I would not feel proper sympathy. It was thru God's help and much prayer that I was able to achieve emotional control, with dignity and poise, yet with extreme tenderness, gentleness, and heart-felt sympathy for those in sorrow, so that I could give them the help they needed in their greatest trial, and still not break down with them.

Surely no one can achieve real Christian growth and perfection until he has acquired emotional stability.

Our tempers, feelings, emotions, were given to us for a purpose! They are not to be nullified—merely intelligently guided by mind control into the proper channels of God's Law!

Emotion in Religion

Of all the phases of life, there is none in which emotional immaturity is more apparent than in religion.

Here, too, people are prone to go to extremes. Either they deliberately work up the emotions to a frenzy or they make their religion a wholly mental expression, restraining the emotions entirely.

Many, usually the more illiterate or at least less educated, follow a religion that is almost wholly emotional. In "meeting," the preachers say nothing that is thought-provoking, but only that which is emotional-arousing. They do not teach, or instruct, they generate unrestrained emotion.

They ask the congregation such questions as "Are you happy?"—echoed by thunderous "Amen's," or shouts of "HALLELUJAH!" The main job of the preacher is to generate wild, shouting, uncontrolled emotion, until the whole congregation is out of control in a frenzy of fanatical exuberance.

Then there are the more quiet emotional sects—but who also accept the counterfeit of sentimentality and emotion for deep spirituality. Indeed it seems that most fundamentalist groups accept one form or another of EMOTION in the place of true spirituality.

But emotion is not spirituality. Emotion is physical reaction. While a certain emotional reaction should naturally follow true and deep spiritual experience, nevertheless it is a physical reaction from that experience, and is not, in itself, spiritual experience. Emotion is produced by the nervous system of the fleshy body. It is, therefore, of the FLESH, not of the SPIRIT!

The Holy Spirit of God is given only to those who OBEY God (Acts 5:32). Most religious bodies who mistake the emotional counterfeit for genuine spirituality preach that "God's Law is done away"—preach a doctrine of "salvation without works," by which they mean without obedience to God or to God's Law.

No one is a real Christian unless he has received, and is being led (in obedience to God's Law) by the Holy Spirit (Rom. 8:9, 14), and the Holy Spirit in us is the LOVE OF GOD (Rom. 5:5) which is the only love that fulfills God's law. And also the Holy Spirit is the Spirit of a SOUND MIND (II Tim. 1:7).

True spirituality, therefore, is SOUND MINDEDNESS, for true spirituality can come only from the SPIRIT OF GOD within us. True spirituality is RATIONAL.

On the other hand, true spirituality is not a mere mental religion divorced from all feeling and emotion. There are the purely mental religions which do not even believe in the Holy Spirit of God.

And there are some of US, perhaps, who have come to know God's Truth—who have surrendered to God, truly repented of our own way, turned from the ways of the world, and who are devoted to studying the Bible to learn God's way so that we may live by every Word of God—and who also pray a great deal, but who yet LACK the very second FRUIT of the Spirit of God—JOY!

NOT Emotionless Maturity

Emotional maturity does not mean "emotionless maturity" any more than it means uncontrolled emotion.

The truly emotionally mature are Spirit-guided by sound Spirit-mindedness—by God's Word, and the emotions are CONTROLLED, but not anesthetized. The emotionally grown-up DO express enthusiasm, JOY, happiness. They DO feel and express gratitude, reverence, adoration in their worship of God. They do feel and express compassion, mercy, sympathy.

God is a Spirit, and they that worship
(Please continue on page 11)

That is the way we are to ask things "in Jesus' name." Christ has given His ministers the duty of performing certain functions in His name—or by His authority. We can rightfully ask for things "in Jesus' name" only when we know that it is His will—that His authority stands back of it.

Just rattling off the words "in Jesus' name" to a prayer that is contrary to God's will and Christ's will is of no avail whatsoever.

Those who abide in Christ and are God's children have the privilege of praying in Christ's name. Jesus explained, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you" (John 15:7).

Yes, Jesus' words must abide in you. You must ask according to His will. You must abide in Him—belong to Him. "Now if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his" (Rom. 8:9). And God gives His Holy Spirit to them that OBEY Him (Acts 5:32).

So to pray in Jesus' name, you must at the same time be yielding to His will to the best of your knowledge. "In Jesus' name" means by His authority. You are praying through Him as your High Priest (Heb. 4:14-16).

Christ—our High Priest—was tempted in all points like we are (v. 15). He understands our weaknesses. It is His revealed will to give us of His Spirit (Luke 11:13) and to help us live a more abundant life (John 10:10). You need to study God's word to know the principles of His will, that you may ask by His authority.

Praying in Jesus' name is a great privilege. Use Jesus' name correctly, and your prayers will be answered because of the authority conferred through Him.

Action Will Follow

If you faithfully conform to these seven conditions of answered prayer—with God's help, you may then have absolute confidence that God will hear and answer your prayers. You will be changing, growing closer to God each day. You will be actively seeking and doing His will.

This intimate contact with the Creator of Heaven and Earth will give you a peace of mind and quiet confidence that nothing can destroy. But your confidence will not be in self, but in the greatest POWER there is. In every trial and problem, you have the right to call on the Supreme Power—the active, living God who reveals Himself in the Bible.

God has inspired an example of how He heard and answered even the prayers of an unconverted man because that man was in a right spirit, and had obeyed what he knew. In II Kings 20:1-11, we read the account of how king Hezekiah was about to die and sought God's deliverance.

God's own prophet, Isaiah, had told Hezekiah that he would die. But Hezekiah knew that God was an all-merciful God, and that he had obeyed God the best he knew how and could.

So Hezekiah "wept sore" and besought God's intervention (v. 3). He put his heart in his prayer!

In spite of the fact that He had previously told Isaiah that Hezekiah would die, God heard and answered Hezekiah's fervent prayer! He added fifteen years to Hezekiah's life!

What a result of prayer!

But was that all?

No indeed. Hezekiah did not doubt God's power to intervene and act as this world does. He made a further request that God would give him a special sign that he would be healed (v. 8).

God's servant, Isaiah, gave Hezekiah the choice of the sign—the shadow would either go forward ten degrees, or backward ten degrees. Hezekiah said it would be harder for the shadow to go backward ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the Lord: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backward" (v. 11).

Because of Hezekiah's faith, obedience, and fervent prayers, God Almighty not only healed him and added fifteen years to his life, but He actually caused the sun to reverse itself in the heavens!

This was not an "optical illusion." God's miracles are real! "For with God NOTHING SHALL BE IMPOSSIBLE" (Luke 1:37).

If you believe that God's word is truth, this should inspire you to pray as never before! Pray for God's work, for God's servants, for His people everywhere. Ask in faith for your own needs. Rely on God in every trouble. He is a God of power!

Now you know the conditions to having your prayers heard and answered. May God help you to put them into action.

Hidden Enemy in Your Home

Him must worship IN SPIRIT, and IN TRUTH. One cannot worship IN SPIRIT unless he has received and is led by God's Spirit. One cannot worship IN TRUTH without UNDERSTANDING of God's Word—with a sound mind. But this kind of worship is not devoid of feeling, and resultant emotional expression. Even though the emotion is physical reaction, it does truly accompany or react from true spiritual experience. But it is not a substitute for it.

The emotionally mature will properly express sympathy in a most sincere manner, from the heart. They will express, on occasion, when called for, sorrow, anguish, compassion. And they will also express good cheer, happiness, enthusiasm, zeal, and that happiness which is brim-full and running over, called JOY!

It sort of sums up, then, that the emotionally-mature combine the controlled expression of emotion with physical health, and an educated mind that is Spirit-begotten and Spirit-led, doesn't it? In other words, emotional maturity develops hand-in-hand with physical, mental, and spiritual growth, the four blending into, finally, the perfect spiritual CHARACTER we were put here to become.

YOU probably have a long way yet to go. YOU have a grave responsibility, if you have children, in their EMOTIONAL training as well as their physical health, mental education, and spiritual guidance. We shall all be called to account some day. How will YOU answer?

Enoch and Elijah

the heaven of God's throne, then to which heaven did he go? for the Scripture reads "and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven (II Kings 2:1, 11)."

The answer ought already be quite obvious; for he "went up by a whirlwind into heaven." There could be no whirlwind in any other place but in the atmosphere surrounding this earth—in the heavens in which the birds fly. You certainly have all seen the great lifting power of a whirlwind, haven't you?

Why Taken Up?

There was a reason for this unusual act of God. Why did he take Elijah up into the atmosphere? Was it to make him immortal? No, the Scripture says no word about that. The ancient prophets did not receive any promise of immortality prior to or apart from us. And we shall receive it when Christ returns (Heb. 11:39, 40).

If Elijah were not made immortal—for that would give him pre-eminence above Jesus—what does the Bible say? What men presume matters nothing.

In II Kings 2:3 and 5 the answer is plainly recorded. "Knowest thou that the Lord will take away thy master from thy head today?" Or as the Smith and Goodspeed translation has it "Do you know
