Blueprint for Survival

SOMETIMES the most shockingly IMPORTANT news goes unnoticed, or buried back on page 17 of your newspaper. Revolutionary manifestos, such as Karl Marx's Communist Manifesto, later to upset the world balance, emerge from obscurity in confused circumstances.

Did you know that Abraham Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address" was not deemed worthy of printing by most newspapers? Only one paper printed it and thus saved it for posterity.

But now comes a real brain-cruncher. It is the recent unveiling of a manifesto for mankind called Blueprint for Survival. Thirty-three distinguished scientists signed their support of it.

First published by a magazine called the Ecologist, only the London Times gave it front-page space. It revealed some staggering FACTS. It gave an analysis of the problems now facing mankind — and, what is almost shockingly unprecedented, it made recommendations for solutions, and for saving humanity alive on this earth. One reader commented after reading it that nothing seems quite the same any more.

Yet the central facts are quite simple. This has been an INDUSTRIAL world only for the past 150 to 175 years. In that short time, "Industrial Man" has burgled the world of its RAW MATERIALS. This has elevated man, in the affluent countries, to a much higher standard of living. At the same time population is increasing in an accelerating spiral! Now there are about 3,500 million of us — only a minority of which enjoy the higher industrialized living standards.

But here's the shocker. In another hundred years MOST of the important raw materials will have been used up — gone! That includes oil, copper, tin, gold, silver, zinc, mercury, lead, and platinum.

And these 33 distinguished scientists DO NOT THINK THE INGENUITY OF SCIENCE WILL BE ABLE TO PRODUCE SUBSTITUTES! At the end of that 100 years, they estimate the world's population will have increased from 3½ billion to 10 or 15 billion!

But the real DANGER to the survival of human life comes through facts revealed by this comparatively new science of ecology. And Ambassador College has been a pioneer in arousing public consciousness to the dangers pointed out by ecology. It was the study of ecological facts that led to this "blueprint." A fundamental concept of ecology is that man is a biological being. Any idea that man is independent, or can live independent of the natural world, is a delusion.

Through technology, in a desire to FORCE earth's soil to YIELD more AND more to satisfy man's greed, the natural life cycle of the soil has been upset. Man is tampering with nature! His pesticides, pollution, and artificial fertilizers have upset nature's balance.

The Manifesto warns that if we "push things too far, if, for instance, the insecticides we use to replace the self-regulating controls that normally ensure the stability of insect populations were to destroy nitrogen-fixing bacteria, or pollenating insects, all the money and all the technology in the WORLD would not suffice to replace them, and thereby to prevent life processes from grinding to a halt. Yet this substitution is implicit in the aim of industrial society

"Imagine what it will be like when water supplies have been exhausted . . . and when the natural mechanisms providing us with the air we breathe have been so completely disrupted that vast installations are needed to pump oxygen into the atmosphere, and filter out the noxious gases emitted by our industrial installations.

"Clearly under such conditions, the slightest technical hitch or industrial dispute, or shortage of some key resource, might be sufficient to deprive us of such basic necessities of life as water, food, and air — and bring life TO A HALT" — that is, erase all human life from this earth.

But will this warning be heeded?

Has mankind ever heeded warnings?

And what are the recommendations of this blueprint for solutions?

These, too, are drastic and shocking. Here is a little of it:

"Economic growth, the cure-all for social problems, is a shibboleth. Britain, and all other societies, should actively seek not just to stabilize, but to

Why Must Men SUFFER?

"Many are the afflictions of the righteous," says Scripture. Why? "I am the Eternal . . . I create evil," says Isaiah 45:5, 7. How can this be? The real meaning of the book of Job brings the true answer.

by Herbert W. Armstrong

WHY DOES God permit war? WHY does God allow human suffering and misery? "If God is GOOD — if God is love — if He is merciful, He would not wish for people to suffer," is the reasoning of many humans. "And if He is Almighty," they conclude, "He could prevent it. So why doesn't He?"

What's wrong with this reasoning?

But Is the Common Explanation Right?

The common conception is this: God finished His Creation as described in the first chapter of Genesis; God created the first man perfect, immortal; the work of Creation was finished — complete. Adam was perfect in character — innocent of sin — endowed with immortality. But then, when God wasn't looking, these people believe, Satan entered and succeeded in overthrowing the man, wrecking God's perfect specimen of human creation. In so doing, of course, Satan thwarted God's purpose.

When God returned and beheld what Satan had done, says this conception, He was forced to think out some plan for repairing the damage. And what is that damage supposed to have been? The man's nature had been changed. He had "fallen" from the nature of perfection, innocence and holiness to a fallen, sinful nature.

According to this concept, God must have shaken His head in near-unbelief and near-frustration. But He did think out a plan to repair the damage — a plan to restore man to a state and condition as good as Adam, before the "fall." The plan of salvation is, therefore, regarded as designed to restore damaged mankind to a condition as good as Adam at creation. But, of course, Satan didn't give up and go away. He has been around ever since, opposing God's efforts and winning the contest.

What Men Don't Understand

Either this common idea is true, or the only alternate possibility — that God was looking, expressly permitted it, and that God therefore is RESPONSIBLE FOR IT!

And the preachers, the churches, and the professing Christian people of this world simply cannot believe this! Yet, to reject it makes Satan more cunning, more powerful than God. The common idea represents Satan as outsmarting God.

What men do not understand is God's purpose, and God's plan for accomplishing His great purpose.

Yes, God is responsible! And being responsible, God will see to it — He and He alone is responsible for accomplishing His great original purpose. But being responsible does not imply being guilty. Nor does it imply God caused it.

All that has happened is a necessary part of that great design. Satan can do nothing God does not allow. "My purpose shall stand," says God.

There is NO CONTEST being waged between God and the devil. God reigns SUPREME, and every creature and every being stands subject to God's will!

Becoming the Sons of God

What the world does not grasp is that God is reproducing Himself — creating, in mortal humans, His very own divine character — permitting humans to learn by experience. For character cannot be automatically or instantaneously created, imparted or imputed. It must be developed, and this only through EXPERIENCE; and experience requires time.

We humans must have our part in the development of righteous and holy character. We must first come to realize the true values, and to thoroughly repent of the false way. We must come to seek, with our whole hearts and minds, God's true way of righteous character. We must set our wills in tune with God's will.

Then we must come to realize our utter helplessness, and learn to rely on God, in living faith, for the power, the strength, the understanding, the righteousness we ourselves are incapable of attaining.

We receive eternal life and all righteousness from GOD. But we have our part to do! We must come to desire it above all else — to seek it with all our might — to yield ourselves utterly to God's will, and to trust implicitly and unswervingly in Him. In no other manner could we become the supreme characters which it is God's purpose to make of us.

To this end, we must now be begotten as God's own children, inher-iting His divine nature. Through His power, through feeding on His Spirit, we GROW in grace and knowledge and spiritual character, until, at the resurrection, we shall be BORN of God as His very SONS — elevated to His plane and level!

That's God's supreme purpose. It can be achieved only through EXPERIENCE, and in process of time. And men learn by suffering.

Jesus suffered. "It became him . . . in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation [Christ] perfect through sufferings" (Heb. 2:10). Again, "Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered" (Heb. 5:8).

Now see how Job's experience explains why men suffer.

Let's understand it!

Job's Experience Explains It

Thousands of years ago, there was a man named Job. You've heard of the man. He lived, as you live today, for a PURPOSE. And the solution to this whole question is made clear by the life experiences of Job. Many know the story, but few understand its meaning.

This Job was a wealthy man — the wealthiest in all the East. Solomon may have possessed greater wealth. But, as Solomon was the wisest man who ever lived, so Job was the most righteous!

So let's briefly look into this thrilling story and its revealing lesson.

"There was," begins the scriptural record, "a man once in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God and shunned evil. He had seven sons and three daughters; also in livestock he possessed seven thousand sheep and goats, three thousand camels, five hundred pair of oxen, and five hundred she asses, besides a very large household; so that this man was the greatest man in all the East" (Job 1:1-3, Moffatt translation and Authorized Version).

"Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Eternal, and Satan came also among them.

"And the Eternal said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Eternal, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

"And the Eternal said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God and escheweth [shuns] evil?" (Verses 6-8, A.V., except "Eternal" from Moffatt.)

"Satan answered, 'But is it for nothing that Job reverences God? Have you not hedged him safely in, his house and all he has? You have prospered him in his business, and his flocks are teeming on the land. Only put out your hand, touch whatever he possesses, and see if he will not curse you to your face!'" (Verses 9-11, Moffatt, except "Job" and "Satan" from A.V. throughout.)

This World's Philosophy

Notice, please, Satan couldn't point out one imperfection in the man's righteousness. Even God said it was perfect. Yes, undoubtedly Job was the most righteous man who ever lived.

But Satan tried to get around it. He argued that it paid Job to be righteous. So, Satan argued, just take away from him what he has, and the man will lose his temper and start cursing God!

Well, God deliberately PERMITTED Satan to take away Job's possessions and put Job to this test.

"Then said the Eternal to Satan, 'There! I leave all he has within your power; but lay no hand upon the man himself' ” (verse 12, Moffatt).

Notice, will you, Satan did this with God's permission! Satan was the active agent. But he did it with God's express permission; he could go just as far, in inflicting evil, as God permitted, and no further! God set a limit on how far Satan could go! There is no contest here between God and Satan — no equality. God is master of the situation! He gives the orders, grants permission, sets the limitations!

“So, away went Satan from the presence of the Eternal.”

What Happened to Job?

Then one day a servant came running to Job with the startling news that Arabs in a foray had carried off all his oxen and asses. Even while he was still talking, in dashed another servant shouting that lightning had just struck and burned up all the sheep, goats, and shepherds. While he was yet speaking, another rushed in breathlessly announcing that three parties of Chaldeans had carried off all his camels in a raid, slaying all the servants except the one who escaped to bring the news.

And even while he was yet speaking in burst another. “Your sons and your daughters,” he exclaimed, “were eating and drinking wine in the house of their eldest brother, when a whirlwind swept across the desert and struck the four corners of the house, till it fell upon the young folk; they are dead; and I alone escaped to tell you” (verses 18-19, Moffatt).

Well, now Job was stripped of all his great wealth — wiped out! Worse, all his children were killed!

Did Job blame this ill fortune upon God? Did he lose his temper and curse God? Did he sin, as Satan expected?

“Then Job rose, tore his tunic, shaved his head, and dropped upon the ground in humble worship, crying, ‘Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked I must return: the Eternal gave, the Eternal has taken — blessed be the Eternal!’ In all this Job did not sin, nor did he give offence to God” (verses 20-22, Moffatt).

Notice, Job attributed ALL to God. The wealth he had had, God gave. The good — the prosperity — all came from God. But also “The Eternal has taken!” The Eternal, too, was responsible for the disaster! Nothing happens contrary to God's purpose!

Satan Tries Again

One day the sons of God again came to present themselves before the Eternal, and among them came Satan.

“‘Where have you been?’ said the Eternal to the Adversary; and the Adversary answered, ‘Roaming here and there, roving about the earth.’”

“Then the Eternal said to the Adversary, ‘Have you noticed that there is no one like my servant Job on earth, a blameless and an upright man, who reverences God and shuns evil? He still holds to his loyalty: it was idle of you to entice me to undo him.’ But the Adversary answered,

“‘He has saved his own skin! A man will let all he has go, to preserve his life. Only put out your hand, touch his flesh and bones, and see if he will not curse you to your face!’ ” (Job 2:2-5, Moffatt.)

Notice, there is no contest here between two equals. God sits in supreme authority. Satan cannot do one thing without permission from God!

And here, in this heavenly court, God permits Satan to advance his arguments — even to put them to the test of experience on the most righteous human on earth! It is a thrilling drama here being enacted — a drama with great purpose — tremendous meaning!

“So the Eternal said to Satan, ‘There! He is in your power; only, spare his life!’ ” (verse 6, Moffatt).

Notice again, all authority comes from God. It is God who put poor Job in Satan's power. Satan was permitted to devise his most cunning and cruel affliction — with but one restriction: “Spare his life,” commanded God. Satan could go no further than God had specifically authorized! And God did permit this evil! Why, we shall soon see!

So, “Away went the Adversary from the Eternal's presence, and he smote Job with painful ulcers from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head, till Job took a potsherd to scrape himself.

“As he sat among the ashes, his wife said to him, ‘Still holding to your loyalty? Curse God, though you die for it!’ ”

Was God Just and Fair?

But Job retorted to his wife, “‘You are talking like an impious fool. Are we to take good from God's hand, and not evil too?’ ”

Notice, all the good had come from God. Also all the evil! Besides Him there is no God — no power equal or superior to His. God is responsible for EVERYTHING — both good and evil — because God's power is supreme — absolute! Is this a sin to charge the evil, as well as the good, to God?

“In all this,” answers God's Word, “Job sinned not with his lips.” Charging this evil to God, then, was no sin — no error. It was the truth!

Job's Friends Argue

“Now, when Job's three friends heard of all the trouble that had befallen him, they came, each from his own home, Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Maán; they arranged to go and con-dole with him, to comfort him. But when they caught sight of him at a distance and could not recognize him, they wept aloud; every man of them tore his tunic and flung dust on his head. For seven days and seven nights they sat beside him on the ground; none said a word to him, for they saw how terrible was his anguish” (Job 2:7-13, Moffatt).

Here is human suffering to compare with the horrors of World War II. Here is anguish almost beyond description! Satan inflicted it. But God permitted it, and is therefore responsible!

Now in the long conversation that followed between Job and his three friends — a conversation occupying the next 34 chapters in the Bible — Job's friends blamed Job's suffering all on Job. Their idea was a good deal like what many people believe today. Since God is good, it was impossible to attribute this evil to God.

But Job continually denied his friends' allegations. Continually, he upheld and maintained his own righteousness. He attributed it all, rightly, to God — yet, without imputing any blame or fault to God. Job understood God's great purpose being worked out here below!

And it is important that we understand! For here Job, as one single individual, is used as an illustration for our learning. He is typical of all the mass suffering we see about us in this world today!

God Enters the Argument

Finally, after all these long conversations run themselves out, God Himself takes a hand in the conversation.

Now we begin to see why this affliction had come to Job.

"Then the Eternal answered Job out of a storm, saying:

"Who darkens my design with a cloud of thoughtless words? Confront me like a man; come, answer these my questions" (Job 38:1-3, Moffatt).

Let me interrupt here with an interesting sidelight explanation which throws light on the conversation to follow. Some authorities believe that Job was the architect and director of the building of the Great Pyramid — still today one of the largest buildings on earth, and, prior to the construction of the Woolworth building, the tallest. That Job was proud of his righteousness is plain. That he also might have been puffed up over constructing the world's greatest building clears up much that God now says to him.

Job was too well aware of his righteousness. God now proceeded to deflate his ego. Can it, then, be possible that God now compares His creation of the earth, and all that is, to the comparatively insignificant accomplishment of building the Great Pyramid? It's interesting to keep this possibility in mind.

"When I founded the earth," God opened up on Job, "where were you then? Answer me that, if you have wit to know! Who measured out the earth? — do you know that? Who stretched the builder's line [on it]? What were its pedestals placed on? Who laid the corner-stone, when the morning-stars were singing, and all the angels chanted in their joy?" (Verses 4-7.)

It is significant that a pyramid is the only kind of building on earth where the cornerstone is the top stone — the last stone laid — at the completion of the building! And here God represents the symbolic "cornerstone" of the earth as being laid at its completion — when the angels shouted for joy!

And so God continued to deflate poor Job. Job may have been the most righteous man on earth — yet how insignificant he was, compared to God!

Man was created to need God! Man cannot live his full life, fulfill his mission, or be happy, unless he keeps himself in his right relationship with God! That is the very first lesson man needs to learn and keep ever in mind!

A first principle in character — in the purpose of our existence — is to exalt and worship only God, to humble the self, to realize man's utter helplessness, and his total DEPENDENCE upon God!

"Who helped to shut in the sea," God asked, "... when I swaddled it in clouds of darkness, when I fixed its boundaries... saying, Thus far, and no further! Here your proud waves shall not pass?" (Verses 8-11.)

"Have you ever roused the morning, given directions to the dawn? ... What path leads to the home of Light, and where does Darkness dwell? Can you conduct them to their fields? ... Have you grasped earth in all its breadth? How large is it? Tell me, if you know that" (verses 12-18).

"Can you bind up the Pleiades [cluster of stars] in a cluster, or loose the chains of Orion? Can you direct the signs of the Zodiac, or guide the constellations of the Bear? Can you control the skies? Can you prescribe their sway over the earth?" (Verses 31-33.)

God does all these things. How mighty is God! And how little, how weak, how impotent and insignificant is man — yes, even the most righteous man, Job! How Job must have begun to shrivel up in his own estimation! Smaller and smaller Job shrank, as God continued. Job didn't seem too important, now.

"Who then," God is not through yet — "is able to stand before ME? Who hath prevented me, that I should repay him? Whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine" (Job 41:10, 11, A.V.). And so God continued to bring down Job's self-righteous importance — and to show the unmatched, awesome magnitude of God, through four whole chapters, before He finished.

And by the time God finished, Job's estimation of himself was exactly nil. All through his conversation with his three friends, Job stoutly maintained his own righteousness — his self-importance! Even though Satan had taken away his wealth, his children — even though reduced to a pitiful sight, covered with nauseating boils — Job's own righteousness he stoutly maintained!

Job was able to maintain his case against Satan — against his friends. But now he could not answer God. Job's trouble was not what he had done, but what he was — SELF-RIGHTEOUS!

The self in Job had never died!

In just 5 verses of Job's conversation, he used a personal pronoun 17 times to refer to himself (Job 27:2-6); and in the 29th chapter alone, he used it 51 times! Now, for the first time, he began to realize the truth — he began to catch a vision of GOD!

The Lesson Learned!

“Then Job answered the Eternal and said,

“I know that thou canst do everything, and that no thought can be withholden from thee. I thoughtlessly confused the issues; I spoke without intelligence, of wonders far beyond my ken. . . . I had heard of thee by hearsay, but now mine eyes have seen thee, wherefore I ABHOR MYSELF, and REPENT in dust and ashes” (Job 42:1-3, 5-6 A.V. and Moffatt).

That was Job's surrender to Almighty God, a surrender every human must make before he can be converted — before God's purpose in him can be fulfilled! A man may be naturally GOOD — but even the self-righteousness of a Job, God says, is like a filthy rag to Him! The only righteousness that is really good is the righteousness of God, imparted to us BY faith!

Job at last had learned his lesson! Just human goodness is not enough. God is all in all. And the only goodness that is good is God's own goodness, imparted, through God's Holy Spirit, within us! All true righteousness comes from God.

ALL humans have this great lesson to learn. It's the one supreme lesson of life! To learn it, and conform to it, is the purpose of human existence!

Job's calamity and great suffering proved a great blessing to him, in the end! Actually, great good, double prosperity, and eternal happiness came of it! For, after he repented, and came to really know God, he was given another seven sons and three daughters and twice the material possessions he had had before!

“So the Eternal blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning,” it is written (Job 42:12, A.V.). And verse 11 speaks of “all the evil that the Eternal had brought upon him.”

Satan Never Altered God's Purpose

So notice this! Satan has never upset God's program — never altered God's purpose! In Job 42:2, the alternate marginal translation of the original inspired Hebrew words is: “no purpose of thine can be restrained.”

Almighty God is supreme in the universe! Supreme not only in love, and in power — but in WISDOM! There is divine wisdom in God's permitting Satan to afflict Job. Out of all this experience of suffering, Job was humbled, his ego deflated, his self-pride removed. It hurt to have these things torn out of his character — Job suffered — even as you and I suffer, today! But he was brought to repentance, surrender to God, dependence upon God, a filling of God's Spirit, without which he never could have known real happiness, never could have gained eternal life!

All Job originally had was material wealth and possessions, and more human righteousness! Now Job had double the material possessions — but infinitely greater, he now had the supreme security of the faith of God, and that true source of happiness, reliance upon the Supreme One and the indwelling of all His attributes! God's Spirit in us is the only thing that will satisfy the heart-hunger. It is the only thing that can warm, fill, and energize the human soul with happiness and joy.

The True Answer to Our Questions

Now we are ready to see, and to understand, the true answer to our questions!

The real answer was brought out by Job during his conversation, even as it is illustrated by the experience of his life.

“If a man die, shall he live again?” asked Job (Job 14:14).

And the answer is the answer to all our questions! Here it is:

“All the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands” (Job 14:14-15).

The part of what Job said that is most often carelessly overlooked is the part that answers the questions of this article! Notice it again!

“Thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands”!

Study that! Job knew he was merely the work of God's hands, merely a clay model, which God, the Master Potter, was to mold and fashion and reshape. Let Isaiah explain it: “We are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. . . . But now, O Eternal, thou art our Father; we are the clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand” (Isaiah 64:6-8).

Our own righteousness will not save us. We must REPENT, surrender unconditionally to GOD, come to Him through Jesus Christ as personal Saviour, and then God PROMISES to beget us with His Holy Spirit — actually put His SPIRIT within us. His Spirit is His very life — His Love, His understanding and wisdom, His power, His faith, His righteousness. We drink in, through His Spirit, His NATURE and His CHARACTER.

Through a long life of Christian living — of overcoming self, of growing spiritually, through the very power of GOD imparted to us, we develop spiritually ready to be finally born of GOD — by a resurrection, or instantaneous conversion from mortal to immortal — from human to divine — from weakness to power — from dishonor to glory!

And what about all these human sufferings which work character within us?

The Apostle Paul settled that: “For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God” (Rom. 8:18-19). □ reduce the Gross National Product.

"Britain, one of the world's leading 'cheap food' importers, should try to reduce its 55 million population to a level commensurate with its own agricultural capacity — 30 million by such methods as contraception and abortion on demand. Currently Britain is heading for a population of 66 million by 2000.

"Britain should stop building roads. The labor force should be redeployed on restoring defunct railway lines and reclaiming canals. This proposition is based on the presumption that the energy outlay for cement and steel required to build a motorway is four times greater than that required to build a railway. And a motorway takes four times as much land.

"All useage of raw materials (i.e., non-replaceable) ranging from coal to gold should be subjected to punitive taxation."

That is only a part of the radical recommendations for solutions. But it is enough to make clear that the solutions will not be tried. Governments, industries, society, will NOT change their present direction. This world will go on polluting the air, the rivers and the lakes — and, in turn, even the oceans and the soil.

But another manifesto has been presented that DOES really present the solution. Actually, it was first presented a long time ago, but the world didn't hear much about it until the last few years. When it was first presented, it was so violently opposed that they PUT TO DEATH the man who made the ANNOUNCEMENT of that solution. And today those making that announcement around the world are reaping a harvest of bitter opposition and persecution.

The announcement of that blueprint for survival was not offered as a suggestion for people to decide and VOTE on — it was, rather, an announcement of the REAL SOLUTION of this human survival problem. Also it embodies the solution of ALL this world's problems and evils. It WILL be applied, regardless of, or in spite of what governments, industry, and human society decide. It does not even require the approval of society or government.

That announcement of the blueprint for survival — that manifesto — was NEWS — and it was GOOD news. Not many seem to KNOW that Jesus of Nazareth, who walked this earth more than 1900 years ago, was a news announcer. People call His GOOD NEWS the Gospel — yet for 18½ centuries THAT Gospel was NOT PROCLAIMED to the world — and MOST of the world, even today, doesn't know what it is! Don't be too sure you do. Because a DIFFERENT so-called "gospel" has gone to the world for 18½ centuries. And this different gospel has so deceived and confused the world that the most important announcement ever sent to mankind is looked on askance, as an unintelligent superstition!

But we need to wake up to the fact that this world today is in deep trouble! The annihilation of all human life threatens!

Scientists, heads of nations, and educators say the world's ONLY HOPE for human survival lies in the emergence of WORLD GOVERNMENT. Yet in the same breath they deny any possibility of the nations getting together in a single world government, with a single military force.

It would seem that it might be expedient to take one good look at this MANIFESTO of Jesus — this BLUEPRINT FOR SURVIVAL He announced. Just what was the Gospel Jesus Christ brought from God? What was the GOOD NEWS He announced? What was this announcement hushed up and unproclaimed for 1850 years?

Was it the MIRACLES He performed? No, the miracles were not the Gospel.

It is written that He went about doing good. But that was not His Gospel. For 18½ centuries there was preaching about Jesus Christ — about His Person. But that was not HIS MESSAGE.

There was much preaching that people should BELIEVE on Christ. Many did — and yet DID NOT BELIEVE His Gospel — His ANNOUNCEMENT.

Notice: "As he [Jesus] spake these words, many believed on him. Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free. . . . I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. . . . but now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God. . ." (John 8:30-32, 37, 40).

Those people BELIEVED ON JESUS, yet they sought to kill Him because they REFUSED TO BELIEVE WHAT HE SAID — they rejected His Gospel.

What, then, IS that Manifesto — that Blueprint for Survival — that Gospel — for which they did kill Jesus Christ? Notice the plain words in the Bible:

Mark 1:1: "The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God. . . . Now after that John was put in prison, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, and saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel" (verses 14-15).

His Gospel — His ANNOUNCEMENT — was the Kingdom of God.

What is the Kingdom of God? Some say it is the Church. Some say it is a nebulous, mysterious something "set up in men's hearts" — something within people — that is, something entering into people. Some have said it was the British Empire.

But notice what Christ said: ". . . I say unto thee, except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God" (John 3:5).

So, according to Jesus, the Kingdom of God does not enter into a man, but, after being born again, a man may enter into the Kingdom of God.

Notice the very next verse: "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit IS SPIRIT" (verse 6). When one is "born again" — "born of the Spirit" — he is no longer composed of flesh — no longer HUMAN — he is COMPOSED OF spirit — he IS spirit. The Church is composed of flesh-and-blood humans, and IS NOT the Kingdom of God.

Notice, next in I Corinthians 15, beginning verse 50: "Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God." So the Kingdom of God can be INHERITED, but not while one is human flesh and blood.

This whole question of what IS the Kingdom of God and being "born again," to use the words Christ used, cannot be thoroughly covered within the space of this "Personal," but we have two booklets, sent free, which cover the subjects in depth: one, Just What Do You Mean... Kingdom of God?, and the other, Just What Do You Mean... Born Again? These are intriguing, important, interesting, and necessary subjects. I suggest you request them, if you have not already.

Suffice it to say here, a kingdom constitutes four things: a king, ruling over subjects, within a definite area over which he has jurisdiction, with laws and government.

Jesus Christ's ANNOUNCEMENT was the coming WORLD-RULING GOVERNMENT, when Jesus Christ shall return to earth in all the supreme POWER and GLORY of the Creator God, to set up the Kingdom of God, to rule ALL NATIONS. One super and supernaturally ruled WORLD GOVERNMENT, ruling all nations with the LAWS of God.

Notice a few brief Biblical passages describing it.

In Isaiah 9:6-7 is the prophecy of a child to be born who shall be given the GOVERNMENT. He is to be called "Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." He is to rule upon the throne of David, in Jerusalem.

Then notice this passage regarding the birth of Christ in Luke 1:30-33: "And the angel said to her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David: and he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end."

On trial for His life before Pilate, notice this conversation in John 18:37, "Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice."

But in the preceding verse, Jesus explained His Kingdom was not of this world — this age — this time, but is to follow the present world, age, or society.

Christ's whole MESSAGE — GOSPEL — ANNOUNCEMENT — was in regard to this now soon-coming WORLD GOVERNMENT that is to rule all nations with FORCE, with justice, and in PEACE — and of the human potential of being born into that Kingdom — that family — receiving the gift of eternal life, being composed of spirit, not of matter.

That, of course, is a big subject. It is the most important knowledge in life. It is the PURPOSE of human life.

It is much too big a subject for this "Personal." But the two booklets mentioned, plus a third free booklet, The Wonderful World Tomorrow — What It Will Be Like will explain it with reasonable fullness. These booklets are a free service — no charge. We have nothing to sell. □

What IS the Kingdom of God?

Is it the CHURCH? Is it something "set up in the hearts of men"? Is it the British Empire? Is it "the good within you"? Is it "the Millennium"? Each of these is widely taught — yet none is right! Read the shocking TRUTH in this booklet. Write for your free copy today!
